The Museum that the Collegiate Church offers to its visitors is the result of the effort made by many people, among which it is necessary to emphasize, especially, my predecessors, the Illustrious Mr. Manuel Soler and the Illustrious Mr. Arturo Climent. Both the exhibition space and the museum programme are indebted to the space inaugurated on 29 June 1996, the feast of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul, by Mr Arturo Climent.

However, the Museum has to be a living organism, which is why we have introduced new elements and made room for certain temporary exhibitions, emphasising certain heritage assets of the Seo itself or even of other institutions, and commemorating important events. As Climent himself said, the Museum "wants to be dynamic and always ready to be enriched with new pieces", and also aims "to be a catechesis on the history of the Church in the city, so it goes through the various historical stages of the Christian faith in the ancient Saetabis until it reaches the current Xàtiva".
